

Key takeaways

Art of Location: Large scale disaster prevention and mitigation

Scenario planning is a critical activity for fostering a culture of preparedness

Complementarity of tools can boost adoption of newer, cutting edge technologies as well as hybrid stack solutions

Location services provide critical visibility by staging emergency response upon a canvas of the highest quality and most accurate map content

Virtual simulations represent the next wave of emergency preparedness by using a multi-vector mapping environment to model out training exercises and disaster response

Ready to learn more?

Contact us here.

© 2020 HERE | Confidential

